Baltic £82000

Dave Harris 2006 - 57ft - Traditional Stern Narrowbeam boat - Outlying

Over the years we have been privileged to sell many fine traditional boats. Baltic, built by Dave Harris is a builder synonymous with quality traditional boats, with his own distinctive styling, these boats are always in demand. Baltic is presented as a new boat in every way. Recently 2 packed for the 3rd time on previously shot blasted steel. Although outwardly this is a very traditional boat, the systems are very much of today, put together in a very belt and brasses way. The engine is of real interest as it is reported as one of 3 engines delivered to America in crates, returning never used until being put into Baltic. The owner of this boat is fastidious in his approach to maintenance as reflected in the overall condition. I have had the pleasure of helming Baltic, she handles with ease. Don't miss this fine classic boat. Appointment viewing only.
